

As historians we will be exploring...

Stone Age and Ancient Egypt:

- Howard Carter's discovery of the Rosetta Stone help us to understand Egyptian life.
- Pharaohs
- Different aspects of stone age life.
- How different family members lived in Skara Brae.
- The building methods in the construction of the pyramids and Stonehenge.
- Egyptian inventions. Which is more important to modern Britain and why?

Year 4 Term 2

Ancient World

Class texts:

As musicians we will...

- Create rhythm and pulse.

As philosophers we will discuss...

- The true meaning of Christmas.
- Traditional aspects of Christmas for Christians.
- The Christmas Story.
- Christingle and the meaning to Christians.

As computer scientists we will...

- Create posters using publisher
- Use templates on publisher

As linguists we will ...

- Be story making using 'La chenille qui fait des trous'.

As athletes we will be playing ...

- Tag rugby
- Swimming

As artists we will be...

- Compose a portrait from the Egyptian Era.

As writers we will use...

- Fronted adverbials
- Expanded noun phrases
- Similes
- Compound sentences
- Emotive language
- Features of instructional texts
- chronology

In order to create our own...

- Setting descriptions
- Instructions to make canopic jars
- Alternative chapter for a narrative

As scientists we will be learning about...

Animals, humans and food webs:

- The relationship between bones.
- How muscles work together to move parts of our bodies.
- Similarities and differences between animals and human skeletons.
- The human digestive system.
- Teeth and their different functions.
- Food webs for different habitats.

As mathematicians we will be learning about...

- Addition and subtraction
- Measurement
- Multiplication and division